Greetings

Gaetano Sabatini, Direttore Istituto di Storia dell'Europa Mediterranea - CNR, Università Roma Tre

Book Discussants

Prof. Albrecht Fuess, Centrum für Nah- und Mittelost-Studien (CNMS) Philipps-Universität Marburg

Prof. Umar Ryad, Faculty of Arts - University of Leuven

The book contains research by Italian, Egyptian, Hungarian and Belgian researchers that reflected on concepts such as “Identity”, “Otherness”, “Diversity” and “Minorities” related to intercultural bonds between the Western and the Islamic worlds.

The discussion with the editors and authors in an engaging environment will highlight the multi-layer connections between East and West through art, culture, and trade.
